Discontinuation of Exam Pass Letter, Exemption and Credit Letter

This is to the information of all concerned that IAI office is getting communication relating to issue of examination pass, exemption or credit for the Examination.

Since the pass/exemption history is available in your IAI member login and same is authenticated information and carry the message on print – "This is a computer generated document and need not require signature."

Hence, you may submit the same to concerned authorities without referring the case to Institute of Actuaries of India.
