The Actuary India – Editorial Policy

Version 2.00/23rd Jan 2011

A: “The Actuary India” published monthly as a magazine since October, 2002, aims to be a forum for members of the Institute of Actuaries of India (the Institute) for;

- a. Disseminating information,
- b. Communicating developments affecting the Institute members in particular and the actuarial profession in general,
- c. Articulating issues of contemporary concern to the members of the profession.
- d. Cementing and developing relationships across membership by promoting discussion and dialogue on professional issues.
- e. Discussing and debating issues particularly of public interest, which could be served by the actuarial profession,
- f. Student members of the profession to share their views on matters of professional interest by way of articles and write-ups.

B: The Institute recognizes the fact that;

- a. there is a growing emphasis on the globalization of the actuarial profession;
- b. there is an imminent need to position the profession in a business context which transcends the traditional and specific actuarial applications.
- c. The Institute members increasingly will work across the globe and in global context.

C: Given this background the Institute strongly encourages contributions from the following groups of professionals:

- a. Members of other international actuarial associations across the globe
- b. Regulators and government officials
- c. Professionals from allied professions such as banking and other financial services
- d. Academia
- e. Professionals from other disciplines whose views are of interest to the actuarial profession
- f. Business leaders in financial services.

D: The magazine also seeks to keep members updated on the activities of the Institute including events on the various practice areas and the various professional development programs on the anvil.

E: The Institute while encouraging stakeholders as in section C to contribute to the Magazine, it makes it clear that responsibility for authenticity of the content or opinions expressed in any material published in the Magazine is solely of its author and the Institute, any of its editors, the staff working on it or "the Actuary India" is in no way holds responsibility there for. In respect of the advertisements, the advertisers are solely responsible for contents of such advertisements and implications of the same.

F: Finally and most importantly the Institute strongly believes that the magazine must play its part in motivating students to grow fast as actuaries of tomorrow to be capable of serving the financial services within ever demanding customer expectations.
